

Technology Job Fair 2006

Gain Access to the Upstate's Most Qualified IT Job Seekers

The GSA Technology Council is excited to announce the return of an Information Technology Job Fair to the upstate on Tuesday, October 17, 2006. The event will be a full day job fair with seminars, a buffet lunch, an exhibitor hospitality room, private interview rooms, and an evening exhibitor reception with cash bar.

Exhibitors will receive the following benefits:

- (1) List of all attendees
- (1) CD with a searchable database of all submitted resumes
- (2) Complimentary tickets to Lunch
- (1) 8' draped table and (2) chairs
- (2) Complimentary invitations to after-hours reception
- Listing on Job Fair website
- Name imprint on 500 event T-Shirts
- Name mention in promotional emails to over 6000 IT Professionals

The number of booths is strictly limited and will be provided on a first-come, first served basis. We expect to sell 100% of our booth inventory and encourage you to maximize both the opportunity to participate as well as your opportunity to gain exposure through our marketing activities by signing up early.

Why are we doing this?

The GSA Technology Council is a not-for-profit professional networking group dedicated to providing networking, education, and professional development opportunities to IT professionals. We have developed the 2006 IT Job Fair in order to foster the professional development of our constituents. To learn more about the GSATC we encourage you to visit our website at www.GSATC.org.

Reserve Your Space

Reserve your exhibit space at the 2006 IT JobFair by completing the form attached and sending it with your payment. (You can request an electronic invoice or pay online via Credit Card by inquiry to phil.yanov@gsatc.org.)

-Phil Yanov

Executive Director, GSA Technology Council

- www.GSATC.org
- phil.yanov@gsatc.org
- 864-303-6887